Dear Concerned Voter:

My name is Bruce Jacobs, and my wife Nancy Jacobs is running for Congress. If you knew me, you would know how unusual it is for me to be writing. I am a very private person, and I try to leave the public work to Nancy. So let me tell you why you are hearing from me today.

Every time Nancy has run for public office she has been successful. She vowed to never run a negative campaign and she has never broken that promise. Unfortunately, the same cannot be said of those who oppose her in this race. They have attempted to paint her in an unfavorable light through an aggressive series of negative phone calls full of misleading distortions and hate.

In every election Nancy has shined brightly for what she is: one of the most decent, hard working people you will ever meet. One newspaper describes Nancy as a person with a "strong sense of integrity and character."

I have come to respect Nancy for a lot of reasons. She is a wonderful wife and mother. She successfully ran a small business. She was elected to the position of Senate Minority Leader by her peers (a leader among leaders!) As the Senate Minority Leader, she was the first woman in Senate history to hold this top leadership position. Twice she has been named one of Maryland's Top 100 Women. In 2011 she was named Senator of the Year by the State's Attorneys' Association of Maryland. She has been honored by Maryland Business for Responsive Government for her pro-business voting record. She is known for her outstanding work in protecting children from sexual predators with her passage of Jessica's Law. Nancy is a true representative of the people.

When the direct mail campaigns and robo calls are over, and you step into the voting booth on April 3rd, ask yourself: Who do you trust to represent you and your family in Washington?

And then ask yourself this question: Do you want an individual representing you in Washington who distorts and mischaracterizes his opponent's voting records and accomplishments, or do you want a tested leader who is active in the community?

While others claim to want to be your Congressman, Nancy wants to be your Representative. That is why Nancy is the only candidate to be endorsed by Bob Ehrlich, Congressman Andy Harris and Ellen Sauerbrey.

Thank you for your time. ~~Every vote for~~ Every vote for Nancy on Tuesday, April 3 will be a vote for integrity and honesty in government. Please share ~~this~~ this letter with your friends as we all need to work together. Together we can make a difference!

Please take a few minutes to learn more about Nancy at her website, NancyJacobsForCongress.com and plan on voting for her on April 3rd.

Sincerely,

Bruce W. Jacobs
